Devi Safir

Audience quote:

"My favorite performance that I saw was by Devi Safir of Oregon. She performed a solo veil piece that seemed to be traditional Egyptian style. I think I enjoyed this piece the most because of her excellent performance quality and dynamic stage personality. She knew how to draw the audience into her performance and she obviously is a very talented and experienced dancer."

Zarifa

It was Zarifa's passion for Egyptian style belly dance that led to the opening of Zarifa's Touch of Egypt, where she now shares her passion for this magical ancient dance, offering beginning through advanced classes.

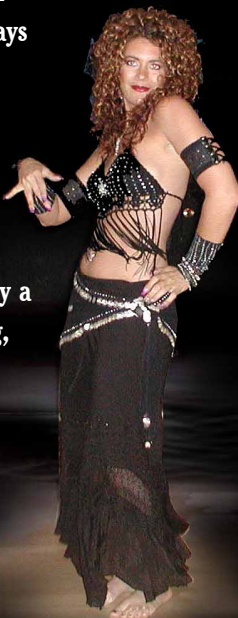

Sihaha

Sihaya brings a background in theatre and years of practice and patience to her dance in an eclectic style with influences from all points of the Earth. Audiences are always in awe of her graceful and beautiful dance compositions.

Isabella

A very fast learner with only a year of study in Belly dancing, Isabella is a joy to watch and a great natural entertainer. She likes to mix it up a little, adding her own style and flavor to her performances.

Katana is a natural entertainer and in a short time has captivated audiences with a dazzling stage presence.
